Each competition offers a single grand prize of $250. (Sponsored in 2020 by Robert Dayton and Anonymous.) The theme for both competitions is “Hope/Gobaith”, within constraints discussed below.
- There are no geographic restrictions for entering the competitions.
- It is permissible for anyone to enter either or both of the two competitions, with a maximum of one poem per competition.
- The balance of this document concerns the Welsh Language Poem composition competition.

- The Welsh Language Poem composition competition is themed. For 2020, we invite submissions of an original poem written to the following constraints:
 - Written to a theme of “Hope/Gobaith”.
 - Anywhere from a minimum of 2 stanzas to a maximum of 6 stanzas, four lines each, thus for a total of 8 to 24 lines.
 - The poem can include a title, or not, at the entrant’s discretion. If included, a title does not count toward the number of lines just noted.
 - No restrictions on meter.
 - Rhyming is unspecified; it can be done, or not, at the entrant’s discretion.
- Submissions which do not follow the constraints noted above will automatically be disqualified.
- The deadline for entering is August 12, 2020. There is no entry fee for this competition.
- As with similar competitions in Wales, anonymity is maintained during the adjudication process; related procedures are discussed below.
- Submissions will be accepted via mail or email. Please carefully review the instructions for submitting via (A) mail or (B) email, in Appendices on following pages.
- The Welsh Language Poem adjudicators for 2020 will be Menna Elfyn and Eurig Salisbury. Adjudication will take place by late August. If a winning poem is adjudicated, it and the poet will be announced via NAFOW publicity channels. The winner will also be invited to submit a video reciting his/her winning poem, which will be included in NAFOW “virtual” events in early September.
- The Welsh North American Association (which organizes the North American Festival of Wales) retains the right to use or include the winning poem at its events and in its publications.
- QUESTIONS? For more information and queries regarding these competitions, please contact the NAFOW Eisteddfod Committee (Tel: 412-215-9161, Email: eisteddfod@nafow.org). All inquiries will be kept in close confidence.
